Item of the Week: Zara Printed Linen Coat

Told you I'm on a print kick. I love this composition of prints and textures from Zara -- very crisp and smart, no? Zara, of course, is celebrating the launch of their Canadian e-commerce this week -- BIG news! Starting on Wednesday, March 6th, Canadians will be able to shop on Zara.com, so hopefully that means more stock as well, and no more disappointments when that hot item disappears from the rack.

$139 at Zara.
